NIGEL SALOMON
CHIEF EXECUTIVE of

- SERVING HUMANITY - the little-known story of the Hebrew University of Jerusalem
- Nigel is the Chief Executive of the British Friends of the Hebrew University, one of a network of 30 Friends organisations worldwide. Established in the UK 95 years ago in 1926 to help the work of the Hebrew University of Jerusalem, the British Friends promotes the University to raise funds in support of student scholarships, research projects and other activities. These include funding UK-Israel student exchange programmes along with collaboration between the Hebrew University and the very best leading UK universities.

Ultimately the objective is to ensure that the Hebrew University remains foremost in Israel and retains its excellence in the global research community
